JH was admitted to us just as a decision was made that JH should be removed from mainstream school due to her behaviour and low attendance. We worked together with the Local Education Authority in Lincolnshire, who identified a school that could best meet JH's needs.

JH currently attends Lady Jayne Franklin School in Silsby and has done so since September 2011. Although there have been challenges, JH has achieved a lot and has a good attendance record. We are currently in discussion with the school to reintegrate JH back into mainstream schooling this year in order to allow JH to settle in before choosing her GCSE options in Year 9. JH is a bright young lady who with the right support will do well.

ND had previously refused to attend education whilst in her previous placement. Previous to this ND had been bullied in school and had found education a struggle. On admission to Angels Meadow, with the help of Tim Whittingham, the local Looked After Children Education Officer, a new school, Bridge House was identified. Although reluctant at first, ND has come on leaps and bounds...

ND's story

ND attends school on a regular basis and is progressing well to the point where she is expected to gain her qualifications, and best of all, her biggest achievement is her self esteem has enhanced ten fold. It should also be noted that ND stays behind after school once a week to complete and catch up on lessons.

“ ND's self esteem has enhanced ten fold

EM has always struggled with education and has previously been excluded from schools. A placement for EM came through the local Education Authority in Lincolnshire shortly after she arrived. EM made a request that she would like to attend mainstream school so staff worked extremely hard to support EM. She was allocated a placement at a Local Authority school. Unfortunately EM could not sustain the placement, so prior to a further exclusion, staff worked together with the Education Officer to identify alternative schooling at an EBD school. EM is currently doing well.
